

3 Peak Behaviour Challenge!

Stanbridge Primary School

Can you rise to the challenge?

BEN NEVIS

SCAFELL PIKE

SNOWDON

24 MILES OF WALKING

10,000 FEET OF ASCENT

450 MILES OF DRIVING

ALL IN 24 HOURS...

The Three Peaks Challenge is a challenge (a hard task or job) which involves climbing three British mountains (a peak is the top of a mountain) in less than 24 hours. The three mountains are the highest of each of the three countries in the island of Great Britain.

Ben Nevis is the highest mountain in Scotland (1344 m)

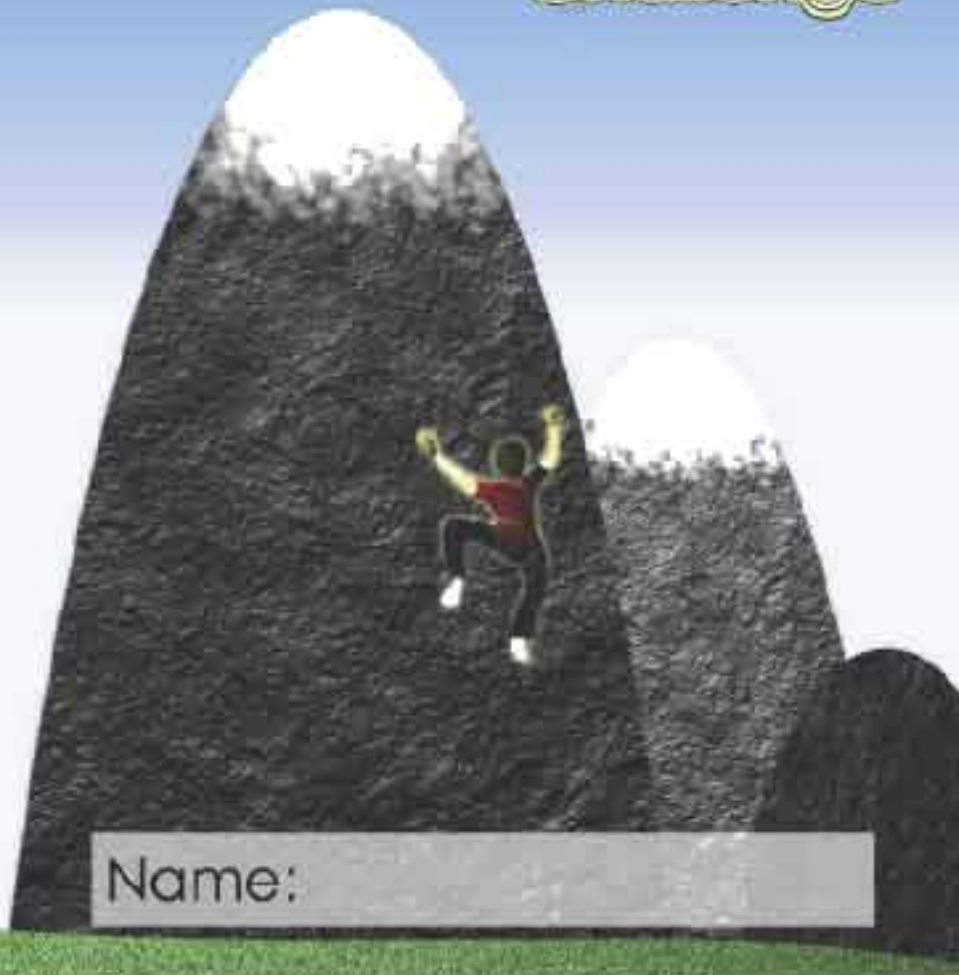

Snowdon is the highest mountain in Wales (1085 m)

Scafell Pike is the highest mountain in England (978 m)

Stanbridge 3 Peak Behaviour Challenge

Name:

Aim High and Fly
Gibb's motto: Selbstvertrauen

Peak 1

- Receive 2 good behaviour letters.
- Attend a club.
- Earn 10 house points.
- Play an active and enthusiastic part in lessons.

Peak 2

- Receive 4 good behaviour letters.
- Receive an All Star award.
- Represent the school in a team or club.
- Earn 20 house points.
- Complete the expected homework in 4 forms.
- Be a good citizen by helping another child.

Peak 3

- Receive 6 good behaviour letters.
- Attendance is 95% or higher.
- Receive an Aim High and Fly award or a Head Teacher's Award.
- Lead a club or team activity.
- Earn 30 house points.
- Complete more than the expected homework every term.
- Mentor or buddy another child.

Peak 1

Receive 2
good behaviour letters.

Attend a club.

Earn 10 house points.

Play an active and enthusiastic part in lessons.

Peak 2

Receive 4
good behaviour letters.

Receive an All Star award.

Represent the school in a team or club.

Earn 20 house points.

Complete the expected homework in 4 terms.

Be a good citizen by helping another child.

Peak 3

Receive 6
good behaviour letters.

Attendance is 95%
or higher.

Receive an Aim High and Fly award or a Head Teacher's Award.

Lead a club or team activity.

Earn 30 house points.

Complete more than the expected
homework every term.

Mentor or buddy
another child.

